

Premium B2 Lesson 20

tenidiomas

Complete the rules with the, no article and a/an.

- 1 We use with singular countable nouns mentioned for the first time, with people's jobs and some expressions with numbers.
- 2 We use when we mention something again or it is common knowledge, when there is only one of something, with superlatives, inventions, types of animal, musical instruments, and certain groups of people, e.g. the young, the unemployed.
- 3 We use when we talk in general and in the plural, with abstract nouns, or with sports, certain illnesses and some expressions following to, such as work, bed and school.

Correct the mistakes in these sentences written by exam candidates.

- 1 I have just recovered from a flu.
- 2 I think one of the most important inventions is telephone.
- 3 He was an officer in army.
- 4 I think cars are greatest danger of all.
- 5 There was 7.8 per cent increase in sales last year.
- 6 I enjoy riding more than playing piano.
- 7 I am engineer in Shanghai.
- 8 I must tell you: I've found the very interesting job.

Match sentences a-j with rules 1-11. Some sentences match more than one rule. The rules can be used more than once.

- a He's a waiter.
- b The Earth is egg-shaped.
- c The United States exports wheat.
- d The British love curry.
- e He's the best chef in Bangkok.
- f I usually go to a restaurant that overlooks the River Thames.

- 1 the is used with rivers, oceans, seas, mountain ranges
- 2 no article is used with most streets, villages, towns, cities, countries, lakes, single mountains
- 3 the is used with national groups
- 4 a/an is used with jobs
- 5 no article is used with sports
- 6 the is used when there is only one of something
- 7 the is used for countries in the plural, e.g. The Netherlands
- 8 the is used with superlatives
- 9 no article is used when a noun is used generally
- 10 a/an is used when something is mentioned for the first time
- 11 the is used when a noun has already been mentioned

Read through this article and decide whether to use a/an, the or nothing in the gaps. Some gaps can have more than one answer.

'I'll have what he's having.' That's what (1) diners sometimes tell (2) waiters when another customer is served (3) meal that looks delicious. Wouldn't it be simpler if you could see every dish on (4) menu before making up your mind? In (5) Japan, that's exactly what diners can do. There, (6) restaurant displays of real-looking fake food, called sanpuru, serve as (7) three-dimensional menu.

At one time, restaurants in Japan used to display real food to advertise (8) restaurant's specialities, and to allow customers to 'preview' their meal. (9) displays also meant that (10) foreigners unable to read (11) Japanese menu could figure out (12) best thing to order. In the 1930s (13) first fake foods were made from (14) wax. Eventually such fake foods replaced (15) real foods. Today sanpuru are made from vinyl, (16) kind of plastic.
