

Choose 'as' or 'like':

1. She works _____ a teacher (it's her job).
2. I'm very _____ my mother.
3. Julie loves mangoes as much _____ I do.
4. He arrived _____ I was leaving.
5. He works in a bank, _____ his father.
6. I used a tea towel _____ an oven glove and I burned it!
7. Your perfume smells _____ flowers.
8. _____ it was cold, I took a scarf.
9. He works _____ a hairdresser (it's his job).
10. That woman looks _____ my grandmother.
11. Please do it _____ me.
12. She hates chocolate as much _____ John.
13. _____ the other students, Paul failed the exam.
14. London is just as busy _____ Tokyo.
15. She often plays sports, _____ tennis or football.
16. Amanda works _____ a lawyer (it's her job).
17. This room is just as hot _____ the other room.
18. You look _____ your sister.
19. She studied really hard, _____ us.
20. We are as intelligent _____ you.

1. She works as a teacher (it's her job).
2. I'm very like my mother.
3. Julie loves mangoes as much as I do.
4. He arrived as I was leaving.
5. He works in a bank, like his father.
6. I used a tea towel as an oven glove and I burned it!
7. Your perfume smells like flowers.
8. As it was cold, I took a scarf.
9. He works as a hairdresser (it's his job).
10. That woman looks like my grandmother.
11. Please do it like me.
12. She hates chocolate as much as John.
13. Like the other students, Paul failed the exam.
14. London is just as busy as Tokyo.
15. She often plays sports, like tennis or football.
16. Amanda works as a lawyer (it's her job).
17. This room is just as hot as the other room.
18. You look like your sister.
19. She studied really hard, like us.
20. We are as intelligent as you.